Following the February 2017 meeting, a decision was taken by the Chair not to replace any further Members who withdrew from the process until after the April 2017 meeting.

It was agreed that this was the most appropriate course of action given the amount and complexity of material already circulated and considered in detail on the issue of the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution during the previous Assembly weekend meetings. It also took account of the fact that there were only two weekends left to consider and make recommendations on this topic.

4 Members withdrew and were not replaced. 95 Members were actually due to attend the April 2017 meeting of the Assembly.
