Individual Reflective Exercise

The purpose of this exercise is to facilitate reflection on the 8th Amendment in the context of what you have heard this weekend and previous weekends, both from experts and from the submissions you have considered.

Please answer in your own words the following questions, giving reasons for your answers in 2/3 sentences.

Do you think a right to life of the unborn child should continue to be constitutionally protected in the same way as now?

Do you think that the X case and the 2013 Act make abortion lawfully available in Ireland in too many circumstances?

Do you think that abortion should be lawfully available in Ireland in more circumstances than is currently the case?
